Winnabow is a small town in NC with a population of 5,000 +/- . It is a rural community located in Brunswick county that has lots of history. Highway 17 sits to the south & east which is a major highway extending down to beach areas including Myrtle beach, SC. Brunswick county is the southernmost county in NC. This is an ideal location for a family looking to build on rural land with the option to have a mini farm - all while remaining just a short drive to local attractions. Dining & entertainment would be an easy option having local eateries not far down the road. A day trip to any of the nearby beaches is a short distance away. Wilmington, NC would also be an easy commute for driving to the workplace.

This property has an expired septic permit on file & a survey. Call today for your private showing of this property & let us help you enjoy your next land purchase!
